

Consultants to CEOs and Boards of Directors

HARVEY A. MEIER CO.

CREATIVE INSIGHTS AND SOLUTIONS FOR GETTING RESULTS

HARVEY A. MEIER PhD, CMC®

Board Trusted Ally™

Harvey@harveymeier.com
509.458.3210

Dr. Harvey A. Meier is an advisor and confidant to Boards of Directors of privately held companies of food processing, agribusiness, manufacturing, consumer product goods, service companies, and non-profit organizations of all types and sizes. He also is an author and a public speaker on leading edge board governance and executive leadership topics.

Boards of Directors retain Harvey for advice, counsel, and second opinions to reinforce making the right decisions and judgement calls. His guidance is highly respected because of his wisdom, insight, foresight, and good judgment.

Clients describe Harvey as their Trusted Ally who always does what is in their best interest and conducts himself with impeccable ethics and integrity. His calm demeanor, direct communication, credibility and trusted advice, delivery style, creative thinking, and dedication has resulted in him being retained by many clients for nearly five decades.

He is the author of the D'Artagnan Way – A Tale of Purpose, Passion, and Team Commitment plus a series of guidebooks on Board Governance Best Practices. He specializes in strengthening the board and CEO partnership with: director training; resolving conflict; and creating strategic initiatives. He also assists boards in navigating the process of identifying and selecting CEOs including evaluating their annual performance.

More specific information about Harvey can be found at:

www.harveymeier.com

What Boards Say About Working with Me:

"You showed us how to forge a solid partnership with our CEO which we know is critical for long term success in our company."

"We find great value in talking to you in complete candor and confidence."

"We find retaining you for a second opinion is a valuable resource for making decisions and good judgment calls."

"You have a strong understanding of best practices in board governance that guides your advice to be productive and world-class."